

Xpelair – United States Warranty

Coast Products, Inc. warrants that Xpelair fans, controllers, and accessories will be free from defects in workmanship and materials for two years from date of purchase; provided that they have been properly stored, installed, maintained and operated.

The warranty shall not apply to any item which has been altered or repaired in any way so as to affect its performance or reliability, or which has been improperly installed, misused, subject to accident, or used improperly in conjunction with another product. The buyer assumes all risks and liability for results of use of the product, the sole responsibility of Coast Products to the buyer shall not in any event exceed the full purchase price of said product.

Coast Products' obligation under this warranty shall be limited to the furnishing of parts which are determined to be defective upon inspection by Coast Products or its authorized representative, or a complete new unit if the original has been determined to be un-repairable. Coast Products will not be responsible for reimbursing repair or replacement labor costs incurred without prior authorization by Coast Products.

All claims under this warranty must be made prior to expiration of two years from date of purchase. Coast Products shall have the option either to inspect the product while in buyer's possession, or to request that buyer return the product to Coast Products at buyer's expense for inspection. Coast Products shall ship the repaired or replacement item to buyer F.O.B. point of original shipment; however, if circumstances are such that the item cannot be repaired or replaced to remedy the warranted defects, Coast Products will refund to the buyer any part of the invoice price paid for the defective product or part.
